

The Communities for Children (C4C) Rockhampton Initiative

invites applicants from non-government organisations and other eligible groups to deliver a everyone's family

'Community Event to Support Teen Parents' in the C4C Rockhampton LGA. The aim of the project is to provide an inclusive and accessible community event to help in creating awareness of existing programs and resources available for teen parents (16 to 19 years of age) in the Rockhampton community. Amount of funding available is dependent on the work plan and budget submitted and is for the period from 1 January 2012 to 30 June 2012. The event would be required to be held between mid-April 2012 and mid-May 2012.
