

The Communities for Children (C4C) Rockhampton Initiative

invites applicants from non-government organisations and other eligible groups to deliver a everyone's family 'Teen Parents Support Program' in the C4C Rockhampton LGA. The aim of the project is to support teenage parents (16 to 19 years of age) to develop positive parenting skills, increase social connectedness, and encourage educational goals under the Building Australia's Future Workforce Strategy. Maximum funding available for this project is $80,000 for the period from 1 January 2012 to 30 June 2012 (with the possibility to extend until 30 June 2014).
