

come on Get Mobility

Indigenous Youth Mobility program

WHAT IS THE PROGRAM (IYMP)?

The Indigenous Youth Mobility Program (IYMP) will give young Indigenous people from regional and remote areas the chance to relocate to Cairns, Toowoomba, Townsville and Rockhampton to access the training and employment opportunities available there, including New Apprenticeships, University courses and accredited courses delivered by TAFE and other Registered Training Organisations. Once the young people have developed their skills they will be supported to take up employment either in their home communities or elsewhere.

The IYMP services can assist participants with:

Training and Employment Services

Safe and supported twin share accommodation supervised by culturally appropriate Residential Youth Worker.

Students contribute to food and outgoings only.

WHO CAN APPLY?

To be eligible you should:

Be an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person between the ages of 16 – 24 years of age; Have support from your family/community to relocate to access education and training opportunities
