

Seeking interested Indigenous Women for an opportunity to be trained to work with Thiess for their Curragh mine contract.

This is your chance to start your career in mining!

Come along to an Information Session to find out more

- Identified positions for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Women
- Elders and family members are welcome to attend
- Opportunity to talk to the Employer
- Opportunity to obtain a Coal Board Medical
- Get Healthy Be Deadly, which is a tailored Indigenous work readiness program and is part of the pre employment training
- Statement of Attainment for competencies from RII20209 Certificate II Surface Extraction
- Operations including Standard 11
- Haul Truck simulator training
- Defensive Driver training
- Mine site specific inductions
- Traineeship positions with ongoing mentor support
- Bus transfers from Rockhampton, rostered shifts and camp accommodation
- An all 'WOMEN' project

Where

The Salvation Army Employment Plus
223 Musgrave Street, Rockhampton

When

Wednesday 1st May 2013

Time

10.15am for a 10.30am start

For further information contact:

Kristy Zumpe: Mob – 0417 491 535

PLEASE NOTE:

Initial participants are being sourced locally in Blackwater, however if all positions are unable to be filled, then Rockhampton participants will be given next preference

You MUST fit the following requirements:

- ✓ Be 18 yrs or over
- ✓ Be able to pass a drug & alcohol test
- ✓ Identify as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander Woman, and
- ✓ Be unemployed or underemployed and preferably registered with a Job Services Australia Provider
- ✓ Hold a current C Class driver's licence (car) (please bring to information session)
- ✓ Be living in Rockhampton (this may include Duaranga or Woorabinda)

PLEASE BRING:

Driver's Licence and a copy of your Resume

