

8 Reasons why you should consider becoming a Girls Time Out – Young Womens Support Service Member:

The organisations' objectives are:

1. To respond to the needs of young women aged 12 – 25 years who are homeless or at-risk of homelessness,
2. To assist young women who are in the target group to identify their personal issues and needs and to provide the opportunity for the development of skills to deal with issues and achieve greater self-reliance,
3. Commitment to providing young women with a safe and supportive environment,
4. To ensure that the rights of the target group to independent expression, decision and action are recognised and that they are given respect, dignity and consideration,
5. To provide a range of services at Girl's Time Out which fosters diversity within the target group,
6. To encourage peer group support for young women,
7. Commitment to ensuring that services and resources provided are socially and culturally appropriate by involving women in the decision making processes of the organisation
8. Commitment to working collaboratively with other agencies to ensure best outcomes for the target group.

So if you have a passion to see young women receive support to assist with their growth and potential and would like to be updated with what GTO- Young Womens Support service is doing, I encourage you to take up membership.
