

MASTERCHEF DEADLY KAIKAI - 8TH JULY

This workshop is for members of the community who wish to learn how to make meals to share with their families acknowledging both Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander food cultures.

Not only will you will learn the history of food preparation, cooking and meal presentation of popular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander dishes but also how you can produce the meals in your kitchen on a cost effective budget.

But WAIT ..... there's more.....

To honour and celebrate our local community elders, a handful of participants from the cooking classes will then be selected to form the 'Deadly Kaikai' team that will prepare and serve meals to our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Elders the very next day at the first .....
